

CAREER COUNSELLING AND PLACEMENT CELL

DERABIS COLLEGE, DERABISH, KENDRAPARA

ANNUAL REPORT 2021 - 22

The Career Counselling and Placement Cell of Derabis College for the 2021 academic year highlights a range of successful initiatives aimed at preparing students for future careers and higher education. The cell has effectively and significantly enhanced students' awareness of employment opportunities and advanced study options. Through these efforts, the cell has facilitated valuable industry connections and provided tailored guidance to support students in achieving their professional goals. The report underscores the cell's commitment to bridging the gap between academic learning and career development, resulting in a notable increase in both internships and job placements.

A placement drive program was hosted at Derabis College on 21st December 2021 in collaboration with the District Employment Exchange, specifically for UG Arts and Science students. Held at 10:30 AM in the conference hall, the event featured Ms. Ashwati Bhosale, HR Manager from S.M.S. Services Rising Star Mobile India Ltd., Bhubaneswar, as the resource person. Ms. Bhosale highlighted the job opportunities available through Rising Star India, aiming to connect eligible UG students with potential employers. The program, attended by 63 students, was organized by IDP Coordinator Prof. G.C. Sethi and Career Counseling Cell Coordinator Raghunath Sahoo.
