Abstract

Value education is more than just imparting knowledge. It is about instilling a set of core values and principles in student that guide their behavior, choices and actions throughout their values. These values include respect, honesty, integrity and more. Education, morality and knowledge are inter-connected concepts. Education plays a crucial role in shaping moral values and improving one's character. It helps individuals develop good morals and make ethical choices by drawing them towards goodness and away from evil. Values reflect culture of a society. In a society, value-judgment grows in an individual and he acquires judgment of facts which are good or bad, decent or indecent, right or wrong. Education is the basic need of any individual and any country to flourish . In a world where everyone is running a race against time and running after money, wherein education is merely about forcing information in the minds of young individuals on the name of education, values have gone and have been lost somewhere. Value education leads to holistic development and enables one to serve the nation with love and mankind. Value education instills in one quality of humility and kindness towards all leading to universal peace and brotherhood of mankind in the entire world. In a world where everyone is running after money and success. Value education makes one more oriented towards making the nation grow leading to development and strength of individual and India. Value education makes students imbibe excellent skills not only academically but also in sports and social skills making them good global citizens and an asset for the nation.

ABSTRACT

COMPARATIVE EDUCATION: ISSUES AND CHALLENGES

DATE - 12.04.2019

This Seminar takes an autobiographical approach, which is applied in order to devise a panorama of comparative Education, as it has developed during the past four decades. It identifies five 'paradigms' which has been dominant in debates, inquires and projects carried out by Comparative Educationists in various regions: East-West conflict, large scale educational reforms, inter-cultural education in multicultural societies and gender issues, transformation process and 'post-modern revolt' against the pre-dominant theories of modernity and universalism cultural pluralism. The changes of these paradigms have been stimulated by developments and trends in the socio-economic, political and cultural framework as well as by the continuous debates within the science. The current period seems to be primarily determined by the challenges to comparative education.

To inculcate the spirit of consciousness with regards to the constitutional rights and lead them to the interest of the National mainstream.

The institutional logo comprises of three distinct dynamic features such as the temple, the burning lamp and the open book.
