

STUDENTS MENTORING PROGRAMME DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS

DERABIS COLLEGE, DERABIS SESSION- 2024-25

Introduction

Mentorship plays a crucial role in personal and academic development. It is defined as a professional relationship where an experienced individual (mentor) guides another person (mentee) in acquiring skills and knowledge to achieve growth in various areas.

Objectives

- Offer support and direction in teaching and learning.
- Promote open and honest communication.
- Value each other's time, expertise, and opinions.
- Provide constructive feedback to encourage self-reflection.
- Align mentorship activities with the mentee's goals and aspirations.

Roles of a Mentor

- Assist mentees in accessing study materials, reference books, and building connections on campus.
- Create a comfortable environment where mentees can openly discuss issues.
- Seek help from higher authorities when required to resolve mentee problems.
- Conduct group or one-on-one meetings with mentees monthly.
- Assess the mentee's progress at the end of each term and plan for further improvement.
- Maintain a consistent interest in the mentee's development and adopt suitable strategies for their benefit.

Responsibilities of a Mentee

- Take charge of their development instead of relying solely on the mentor.
- Participate actively in scheduled meetings and follow the mentor's guidance.
- Be punctual and maintain transparency in interactions.

- Share ideas and aspirations with the mentor and act on their advice.
- Accept feedback with an open mind and update the mentor on progress.
- Recognize mentorship as a valuable opportunity and make the most of it through dedication and hard work.
